

Shaheed Rajguru College of Applied Sciences for Women
University of Delhi

Report of activities conducted by Youth Parliament Society in the College
(2019-2020)

On the occasion of Samvidhan Diwas (Constitution Day), the College, under the aegis of its 'Youth Parliament' Society conducted several activities on 26th November' 2019, to mark the Celebration of Samvidhan Diwas.

1. The Celebrations began with the students, teachers and the staff organizing a Pledge Ceremony. The Preamble to the Constitution of India was read by the students and staff.
2. A Pledge was taken upholding the Fundamental Duties of the citizens, as enshrined in Part IV-A of the Constitution. Pledges were recited in both Hindi and English. All the students, teachers and staff took a pledge to uphold the essence of the Constitution in letter and spirit.
3. At 1100 hours, the Hon'ble Prime Minister, Sh. Narendra Modi ji's interaction with the nation was telecasted and played Live in the College. The PM was addressing a Joint Session of the Parliament where he upheld the spirit and significance of the Constitution. The event was streamed Live for the students, teachers and para-teaching staff of the College.
4. The College invited an expert on Indian Constitution for a talk. Dr. Ritu Kohli, Associate Professor, Department of Political Science, Maharaja Agrasen College, University of Delhi was invited for a lecture on salient aspects of Indian Constitution, Fundamental Duties and Fundamental Rights. This was followed by an elaborate interactive session with students, faculty as well as the para-teaching staff of the College.
5. As a part of the monthly activity calendar, the Youth Parliament Society conducted an Essay Writing Competition on 30th January' 2020. The topics of the Essay Competition were as follows:
 - Indian Constitution is federal in nature and unitary in spirit
 - Rigidity and flexibility of constitution.
 - Education and Politics

20 students participated in the event and two students were declared as the winners –

- Ms. Sudeeti Kapadia secured 1st position
- Ms. Srijaya Maity secured 2nd position.

6. On the occasion of Ambedkar Jayanti, the Society on 14th April' 2020 organized slogan writing on the theme "Lockdown". A write-up activity was also planned on the topic "My Vision for Present India".