

About the College

Shaheed Rajguru College of Applied Sciences for Women affiliated to University of Delhi and funded by Govt. of NCT of Delhi, was established in the year 1989. The College offers B.Sc. (Honours) in Biomedical Science, Chemistry, Computer Science, Electronics, Food Technology, Instrumentation, Mathematics and Physics. These courses provide the platform where the students are equipped with essential and practical knowledge to face the challenging positions worldwide. The college has about 760 students at present hailing from different parts of the country.

The college has well-qualified and competent faculty. An important aspect of teaching process is the ability to learn, unlearn and relearn. The teaching philosophy in the college is that the difference between the teacher and the taught has to be dissolved; the teacher and the taught are part of one process. The college has efficient support staff responsible for the smooth functioning of various laboratories and administrative work in the college.

Besides regular courses college conducts short term workshops and lectures on various relevant fields. The college in collaboration with CISCO runs a CISCO networking academy and prepares the students for CCNA industry certification. The college also has an Indira Gandhi Open National University (IGNOU) centre for Post-Graduate Diploma in Library Automation and Networking (PGDLAN).

The college gives its students opportunity to excel in sports and co-curricular activities as well. There are various societies in the college like Mukhauta (Street play society), Aharyaa (Dance society), Philyra (Music society), Elvira (Fine arts society), Shuffle Shots (Photography club), Glamfire (Fashion society), Inklings (Literary society), Eco club to name a few.
