2. Interactive talk on STEM to STEAM": "Technical Fest-TRAP'22 was jointly organized by the departments of Chemistry, Mathematics, Physics, and Statistics on 16th and 17th January, 2023. The fest comprised of a talk, various competitions and fun events. The keynote speaker was Dr. Surabhi Dhingra, Associate Professor, Department of Commerce, Deshbandhu College, University of Delhi. She enlightened more than 100 students with an informative session on the topic: From STEM to STEAM. The Department organised an advertisement and presentation-based competition Reveal the Truth 2.0, in which the participants (12 participants) had to expose the dark side of popular advertisements and provide an honest view. The second event was Comedie Debout, wherein students from various colleges participated (34 participants) to show their talent. Apart from these other competitions and fun events organised were Ace the Data, Voice of brains, Marvel Quiz, Scibola, Treasure hunt and Stratazenith. The fest drew an active participation from various colleges, making it a memorable one.
