Referencing Style

In-text citations (As per APA, 7th Edition)

Provide the last name of the author followed by a comma, then the year of publication. Example: (Jones, 2005)

For works with two authors, put and between the last names of the authors. Example: (Cook & Croft, 2015)

For works with three or more authors, provide the name of the first author plus “et al.” Example: (Chen et al., 2008)

Include page number only in the rare case where a direct quote (placed in quotation marks) is used. Example: (Jones, 2005, p. 79)

Reference List

Heading:

Use “References” as page heading.

Indentation: For each entry, all lines after the first line should be indented one-half inch from the left margin.

Spacing:

Double-space the entire list (both within and between entries).

Author: Provide the last name of the author, then the initials of the first and middle names. Put a space between the initials. Example: Jack, A. A.

Two authors:

Put a comma and an ampersand between the authors. Example: Cook, M., & Croft, J. B.

Three or more authors:

Put a comma after every author. Before the final author, put a comma and an ampersand. Provide last names and initials of up to 20 authors. When there are 21 or more authors, include the first 19 names, insert an ellipsis (but no ampersand), then provide the last author’s name.

Article title:

Do not place quotation marks around the article title. Use sentence case (that is, capitalize only the first word of the title, the first word following a colon, and proper nouns). Example: Interactive mindfulness technology: A walking labyrinth in an academic library

Journal title:

Do not use sentence case (that is, capitalize all major words). Example: College & Research Libraries News

Journal volume and issue numbers:

Italicize the volume number. Include the issue number for all journals that have them. Place the issue number immediately after the volume number (no spaces), and enclose the issue number in parentheses. Example: 76(6)
